

MADISSON YOUNG

Madisson was born and raised in Salem, New Hampshire. She grew up dancing at her local dance studio and performance arts high school!

She decided to pursue her passion professionally which lead her to major in dance at Oklahoma City University! Madisson graduated from OCU in December 2021.

After graduating college, she moved to Dallas, Texas to train to become an NFL cheerleader.

Madisson taught at her home studio in New Hampshire and taught last season at RACE Dance Collective in Oklahoma City, Madisson recently worked with Metropolis Production for the 60th anniversary of the Mary Kay Summer Seminar.

Madisson is super excited about her first year teaching at Elevate Dance Center!
